Steps

The process began using extra long nail tips. I splayed a base of colors for each nail with Pearl , Pink, Blue, Purple. And maked Sakura . The brush was used for these applications.

Next, I began painting a classic Emporer and Emporers' Wife from the Heian period . (The last division of classical Japanese history that runs from 794 to 1185. The Heian period is considered the peak of the Japanese Imperial court and noted for its art and especially in poetry and literature. The name Heian is word that means "peace" in Japanese)

Paint's colors Black, Brown, Red, Blue, Green, Yellow, Purple, White, Gold , Orange, Pink.

I applised gold beans to center on the Sakura.

No one color is pure, all final colors on the background and Emporers are a mixture of paints too numerous to mention here. Of course , finally a top coat was utilized.

The photos were taken with my Nikon E3200 Digital Camera with Toshiba Windows XP home computer.
